Plein Air Peconic: Art Exhibition & Sale

Once again, the painters and photographers of Plein Air Peconic will be displaying works of conserved landscapes in the barn at Through Farms & Fields. Please spend some time enjoying these beautiful works that represent the conservation work of the Trust.

All artwork will be available for purchase at the dinner, with a percentage of the sale being donated to the Trust by the artist.

Conservation-Tourism Auction Items

1. An amazing trip for four people to Napa, CA in the summer of 2012, courtesy of the Napa Valley Land Trust. This unique package will start with a 2-night stay at Meadowood Napa Valley in St. Helena, where you'll each enjoy a spa treatment, a game of croquet and a round of golf. Then you'll head to Brown Ranch, the Saintsbury Vineyard's guest house in Carneros for a 4-night stay. Your trip will also include guided hikes with picnic lunches to three of the land trust's stunning Preserves, VIP tastings with limo service to several protected vineyards, and gift certificates for dinner to local restaurants.

2. An all inclusive, 3-night fall 2012 getaway for four people to the Thousand Islands, NY courtesy of the Thousand Islands Land Trust. You'll board an antique wooden boat for a relaxing cocktail cruise, join land trust staff & trustees for a guided "mule tour" of their 1,100 acre Grindstone Island Preserve with a picnic lunch overlooking the river, enjoy an old fashioned St. Lawrence fishing trip and shore dinner with one of the river's legendary charter captains, and get a bird's eye view of the Thousand Islands' iconic landscape during a plane flight of the region. Gift certificates for dinner to three of the area's finest restaurants, and water-side spa treatments also included.

3. An all inclusive 4-night getaway for two people to the Playa Nicuesa Rainforest Lodge, an environmentally sensitive lodge set on a 165-acre private preserve in the undeveloped Pacific Coast Osa Peninsula region of southern Costa Rica courtesy of resort owners Donna & Michael Butler. Includes private high-end accommodations, three exceptional meals a day, unlimited use of kayaks, snorkeling gear and fishing equipment and boat transfer between lodge and town of arrival & departure (either Golfito or Puerto Jimenez).
