

PECONIC LAND TRUST

Hilary Leff

Hilary joined the Board of the Land Trust in 2009, after having been a long time member of Quail Hill Farm. She began her professional career as a lawyer but after only a few years realized that her passion was working with food. She has worked as a pastry chef and caterer in New York City for Balducci's and Citarella and currently teaches cooking and nutrition classes for City Harvest. She also runs The Reader's Circle, a book club for homeless teenagers in Manhattan and is on the Advisory Board of Quail Hill Farm. For the past 5 years she has chaired At the Common Table, a joyous celebration of food and community at Quail Hill. She is an amateur photographer and potter. She splits her time between Manhattan and East Hampton with her husband, her son and daughter and her 2 dogs. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan and New York Law School.
