

PECONIC LAND TRUST

Richard Hogan

Rich graduated from Villanova University in 1983 with a degree in Bachelor of Arts, Honors. He began his professional career as an Independent Options Trader on the floors of the New York Stock Exchange and American Stock Exchange. After successfully trading his own account, Rich was recruited by Spear, Leeds & Kellogg (“SLK”) as a Specialist in early 1987. Rich became a Limited Partner at SLK in 1990 and a Managing Director in 1992.

As Managing Director of the Index Derivatives Group, Rich established trading operations in Chicago, Singapore and London as well as other satellite operations. SLK’s domestic and international index trading and specialist operations nurtured Exchange Traded Funds (“ETFs”) as Specialist in SPDRs, WEBS, Sector SPDRs, iShares and other ETFs. Rich worked closely with Exchange Staff, Issuers, Index Providers and others in conceiving, designing, developing, launching, marketing and trading new ETFs. Notably, he championed the idea of a fixed income ETF.

In 2000, Rich became a Managing Director of Goldman Sachs when SLK was merged. He played a critical role in combining the ETF operations of SLK, Goldman and Hull Trading, a prior Goldman acquisition.

Since 2002, Rich has been actively managing his own portfolio. He spent five years living in France and Switzerland in pursuit of a love of skiing, climbing and alpinism. He resides in New York City with his wife and four children. Rich is a Founder and Managing Member of Yorkville ETF Advisors, a sponsor of exchange traded funds.

Rich pursues a passion for land preservation as a Board Member of Peconic Land Trust of Suffolk County, NY and his involvement with Agricultural Stewardship Association of Washington County, NY. He has served on the boards of Long Island Lutheran High School Endowment and Gary Klinsky Children’s Centers.
